

EAST BARNET.

Wells Clifford very Active At the Age of 84—Personals.
(Mrs. C. W. Tilton, Correspondent.)
Wells Clifford was 84 years old Monday, February 12. He lives one-fourth mile from the village and each day walks there to get the daily paper.

Howard Wormwood had a birthday Wednesday afternoon. It being the fourth birthday. There were five youngsters present. Mrs. Wormwood served ice cream, cake and wafers.

Mrs. Mary McGill has been entertaining Mrs. Nellie Foster of Danville the past few days.

Mrs. Kendall spent Wednesday in St. Johnsbury on business.

Miss Elsie Wild spent Thursday and part of Friday in Woodsville, N. H., visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fred Chandler.

Mrs. E. E. Roy, Mrs. C. A. Elliott, Mrs. Edward Amell, Mrs. C. W. Tilton, Mrs. Elsie Wild and Oliver Amell spent Friday in St. Johnsbury.

Henry Gannett was in St. Johnsbury Friday evening to referee a basketball game.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Champney and daughter, Azilda, spent the week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Amell and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Menard.

Mrs. Leslie Frazer and children of Monroeville, N. H., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore.

There were no services at the church Sunday afternoon on account of the funeral of Mrs. C. H. Harris at Barnet.

Mrs. E. F. Tilton of Danville was the guest of Mrs. Harvey Burbank Wednesday.

Percy and Eugene Elliott of Rumney, N. H., were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Elliott.

Egbert S. Kendall attended the station agent and telegraph operators' banquet at Hale's Tavern, Wells River, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Nelson attended the funeral of Mrs. C. H. Harris at Barnet Sunday afternoon.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a medal contest at the chapel Friday evening, March 2. There will be speaking and good music will be furnished.

Charles Wormwood cut off a little finger to the first joint Monday morning while working on a saw at Roy Bros' shop.

Miss Evelyn Blandin of St. Johnsbury is spending a few days with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kendall spent one day last week in St. Johnsbury.

Miss Anna Hoffman spent the week-end at her home in Lyndon.

Miss Thelma Burbank has recovered from her illness and is back teaching the Brook school.

The East Barnet Dramatic club will present the drama, "Red Acre Farm," at Town hall at Barnet Friday evening, Feb. 16.

Mrs. Mary Carter, who has been quite sick the past two weeks, is gaining slowly.

Miss Marion Quimby and Miss Irma King of Passumpsic furnished music for the play and promenade at McIndoe Friday evening.

Mrs. Alvah Blandin entertained Mrs. Nellie Foster of Danville and Mrs. Mary McGill of this place Friday.

Mrs. Mary Amell was the guest of Mrs. Joseph Harris at Passumpsic Friday.

Everett Montgomery spent the week-end at his home in St. Johnsbury.

Several of the people here are having their ice houses filled.

Mrs. L. C. Ames is visiting Mrs. Lizzie Legacy at St. Johnsbury.

Harvey Burbank and son Natt, and daughter, Lois, Mavourine Cilly, Nan Glover, Alice Niblock, Alex Welch, Bernie George and Marie Kendall attended the drama, "Look Out for Paint," at McIndoe Friday evening.

Mrs. Mary Fecteau spent one day last week in St. Johnsbury.

The ladies of the chapel society met with Mrs. G. A. Richardson Wednesday afternoon.

C. A. Elliott spent Friday in Woodsville, N. H.

Mrs. Josephine Watts of Barnet was the guest of Mrs. Mary McGill Saturday.

Edward Moore of Hanover, N. H., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore, the last of the week.

Mr. Haseltine, who hurt his fingers several days ago, returned to work Thursday.

WELLS RIVER.

(Mrs. D. G. Farwell, Correspondent.)
J. B. Brode of Chelsea, Mass., was in town Saturday to attend the banquet of the railway telegraphers held at the Tavern Saturday night.

The illustrated lecture on "New England Sea Coast and Inland Lakes" was well attended Monday evening.

Monday morning the thermometer registered from 29 to 34 degrees below zero in different parts of the village.

Samuel Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Farwell and sons attended the Carnival of Winter Sports at Hanover Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Nelson Bailey has been confined to the house with grip the past week.

Mrs. Malcolm Buck left Monday for Peterboro, N. H., to stay a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Robert Paquet.

Miss Bernice Baldwin is visiting Mrs. Robert O. Blood in Concord, N. H.

Prin. Lewis Meader and Mrs. Meader of Providence, R. I., were in town over Lincoln's birthday.

WHEELLOCK.

(Mrs. G. L. Gerry, Correspondent.)
Mrs. A. Craig, who has been spending some weeks with her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Mathewson, has returned to her home in the village.

The village teachers went last Friday to their homes for the week-end. Miss Bigelow to Peacham, Miss McLean to Newport, returning Monday. There was no school in either room Monday.

The auditors met last Wednesday and Thursday and finished Monday.

S. W. Drake was home over Sunday from Montpelier.

Little Dorothea Dwyer has the whooping cough.

The worst storm of the winter came last Friday afternoon, all night and all day Saturday, with a fierce wind. The roads on the hills were drifted, making it nearly impossible to get out. The rollers started early Sunday morning and at this writing are not all broken out. The thermometer registered Monday morning from 10 to 49 degrees below zero in the village.

Mrs. Rose Blodgett came from Boston with her household goods to her farm on the hill, where they will make their home.

D. B. Leslie, who has been quite sick is now able to be out.

Judge Hoffman came home from St. Johnsbury last Thursday.

Mrs. Libby moved from the Jonas Folsom place to Lyndon last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dana visited their daughter, Mrs. Fred Darling, and family at Chandlerville last Friday.

Harry Hubbard's two children are sick with the prevailing distemper.

The V. I. S. met last week, Tuesday, with Mrs. S. W. Drake.

Miss Flora Drown was home over Sunday from her work at Lyndon Center.

EAST RYEGATE.

(A. G. Bedell, Correspondent.)
John Clark returned from Burlington Wednesday, where he had been at his home the past week.

Mrs. C. M. Wallace went to South Barre Wednesday where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Howard.

Mrs. M. A. Brown and Dr. Dooley attended the dance and whist party at the parties in Woodsville Thursday evening. They were entertained by Miss Mary Gallagher and returned Friday.

DANVILLE.

Deaths of Miss Lizzie Gillis and Lyman Hunt, Former Residents.—Locals.

(Mrs. C. W. Bartlett, Correspondent.)
The remains of Miss Lizzie Gillis, who died at Danville on Feb. 8, at the Gale Home at Manchester, N. H., were brought here Monday for burial.

Miss Gillis was the aunt of J. W. Gillis of this place, and will be remembered by the older residents, as her early life was spent in town. She was 84 years of age and is survived by one sister, Mrs. James Colcock, of Newtonville, Mass., and two brothers, John Gillis of Manchester, N. H., and Dougald Gillis of California.

News has been received here of the death of Lyman Hunt, which occurred at his home in North Billerica, Mass., Feb. 10.

The next grange meeting will be held Feb. 20, when the following program will be given: Song by the grange; roll call, answered by patriotic quotations; piano solo, Mrs. Lillian Dole; reading, Bryant's Washington; Mrs. Sadie Johnson; discussion, "What is Our Legislature doing?" led by H. S. Dole, James Stevens, M. M. Stocker and M. D. Clement; reading, Markham's Lincoln; Miss Edith Harwood; song, "America," by the Grange.

Mrs. Ned Oederkirk and daughter, Miss Alice Oederkirk, visited relatives at St. Johnsbury last week.

A trained nurse is taking care of Miss Addie Frye, who is ill with pneumonia.

Miss Abbot of Cabot is working at the Caledonian National bank.

E. C. Woodward has been quite ill the past few days.

Donald McNaughton, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is recovering.

Mrs. C. W. Lang and Mrs. Charles Thumber were among those who have been ill the past week.

Percy Gould of Claremont, N. H., visited his friends in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gillis were at Walden last Wednesday evening, where they attended the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Kingsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Stocker were in Boston last week.

Miss Christine Hatch of Hanover, N. H., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hatch, the first of the week.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will hold a food sale at the church this week, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. George Fox, who has been ill, remains about the same.

Rev. W. C. Atkins, pastor of the M. E. church, will exchange pulpits next Sunday morning with Rev. C. A. Adams of the Congregational church.

Mrs. Annie Hanson of Concord, N. H., was a guest at Harry Osgood's last Wednesday.

Mrs. Susie Caldwell is at the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington, where an operation for appendicitis was performed the latter part of last week.

There was a very good attendance at the K. of P. hall last Thursday evening.

The Passumpsic Telephone Co. recently installed telephones for Clarence Barre, Delmer O. Smith, W. F. McCormick, Merton L. Rodger, F. B. Milligan.

NEWARK.

(Porter Wallace, Correspondent.)
The Women's Foreign Missionary society will meet with Mrs. Porter Wallace Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 20, at 2 o'clock.

Don Carr's two youngest children are sick with whooping cough.

Mrs. Will Hill is ill with bronchial pneumonia at her mother, Mrs. Spencer's.

Mrs. Charles LeClair's father and mother have come to spend the rest of the winter with her.

MCINDOE FALLS.

(J. D. Nichols, Correspondent.)
L. M. Hunt of Pompanoosuc was in town Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. J. H. Stuart entertained Mrs. Knapp of St. Johnsbury and her sister, Miss Christine Tubbs of Barre, last week, Wednesday.

Miss Helen Phelps of Barnet is spending a few days at her grandparents, W. M. Phelps.

Miss Hazel Boutelle was a visitor at John Duffin's over the week-end.

McIndoe A. A. basketball team will be together for the first time this season, Feb. 16, when they play Windsor on their own floor. Windsor is decidedly the fastest team in the state. The lineup: Pope, fg.; E. Carlson, fr.; C. Carlson, c.; Larve, rf.; N. Darling, lf.; G. Dumas.

Miss Nellie Emery and a friend from Littleton spent Friday with Mrs. J. H. Stuart.

J. H. Stuart was in Hardwick Friday on business, and in St. Johnsbury Monday. He was accompanied by C. E. Dumas.

A good crowd attended the play Friday evening, considering the awful storm, the class realizing around $25.

Leslie Frazer finished work for J. H. Goodrich Saturday night. A young man by the name of Carpenter from St. Johnsbury has taken his place.

Miss Madeline Chamberlain of Lisbon visited Miss Julia Smith and attended the play Friday evening.

Mrs. McConach spent last Thursday at Barnet with her daughter, Miss Leonard.

Miss Nellie McConach visited Mrs. McConach over Friday night.

Mrs. Murray Little and Mrs. Beck also Mrs. O. N. Bedell have been quite sick with grip. O. N. Bedell remains in a very serious condition.

Mrs. Arthur Corley and son returned from Canada Saturday night. They are at Jack Winchester's.

Miss Madeline Chamberlain of Lisbon visited Miss Julia Smith and attended the play Friday evening.

Mrs. McConach spent last Thursday at Barnet with her daughter, Miss Leonard.

Miss Nellie McConach visited Mrs. McConach over Friday night.

Mrs. Murray Little and Mrs. Beck also Mrs. O. N. Bedell have been quite sick with grip. O. N. Bedell remains in a very serious condition.

Mrs. Arthur Corley and son returned from Canada Saturday night. They are at Jack Winchester's.

Miss Madeline Chamberlain of Lisbon visited Miss Julia Smith and attended the play Friday evening.

Mrs. McConach spent last Thursday at Barnet with her daughter, Miss Leonard.

Miss Nellie McConach visited Mrs. McConach over Friday night.

Mrs. Murray Little and Mrs. Beck also Mrs. O. N. Bedell have been quite sick with grip. O. N. Bedell remains in a very serious condition.

Mrs. Arthur Corley and son returned from Canada Saturday night. They are at Jack Winchester's.

Miss Madeline Chamberlain of Lisbon visited Miss Julia Smith and attended the play Friday evening.

Mrs. McConach spent last Thursday at Barnet with her daughter, Miss Leonard.

Miss Nellie McConach visited Mrs. McConach over Friday night.

Mrs. Murray Little and Mrs. Beck also Mrs. O. N. Bedell have been quite sick with grip. O. N. Bedell remains in a very serious condition.

Mrs. Arthur Corley and son returned from Canada Saturday night. They are at Jack Winchester's.

Miss Madeline Chamberlain of Lisbon visited Miss Julia Smith and attended the play Friday evening.

Mrs. McConach spent last Thursday at Barnet with her daughter, Miss Leonard.

Miss Nellie McConach visited Mrs. McConach over Friday night.

Mrs. Murray Little and Mrs. Beck also Mrs. O. N. Bedell have been quite sick with grip. O. N. Bedell remains in a very serious condition.

Mrs. Arthur Corley and son returned from Canada Saturday night. They are at Jack Winchester's.

Miss Madeline Chamberlain of Lisbon visited Miss Julia Smith and attended the play Friday evening.

Mrs. McConach spent last Thursday at Barnet with her daughter, Miss Leonard.

Miss Nellie McConach visited Mrs. McConach over Friday night.

Mrs. Murray Little and Mrs. Beck also Mrs. O. N. Bedell have been quite sick with grip. O. N. Bedell remains in a very serious condition.

Mrs. Arthur Corley and son returned from Canada Saturday night. They are at Jack Winchester's.

Miss Madeline Chamberlain of Lisbon visited Miss Julia Smith and attended the play Friday evening.

Mrs. McConach spent last Thursday at Barnet with her daughter, Miss Leonard.

Miss Nellie McConach visited Mrs. McConach over Friday night.

Mrs. Murray Little and Mrs. Beck also Mrs. O. N. Bedell have been quite sick with grip. O. N. Bedell remains in a very serious condition.

Mrs. Arthur Corley and son returned from Canada Saturday night. They are at Jack Winchester's.

GROTON.

Grange Officers Installed—Other Occurrences in Town.
(Mrs. G. H. Mills, Correspondent.)

The Groton Grange held their installation of officers Tuesday evening, Feb. 6. The following officers were installed: Overseer, Leslie Thurston; steward, Ralph Frost; assistant steward, Clarence Brown; chaplain, Estelle Lakin; lady assistant steward, Myrtle Logare; lecturer, Maud Purcell; Pomona, Addie Smith; Ceres, Kathleen Hendry. Eight new members joined the same evening.

Mrs. Carlos Welch of Plainfield, who has been staying with Mrs. George Welch for the past two weeks, returned to her home Monday.

Mrs. Herbert Hood is sick with heart trouble.

Mrs. George Coruth, Mrs. Abbie Hunt and Mrs. Martha Page have all been sick with the grip, but are better now. They have each been cared for by a trained nurse.

Miss Elmer Markham of Woodsville, Mrs. Mary Canning of Morrisville, and Mrs. A. C. Goring of Lisbon, N. H., were called here by the death of their brother, James Markham.

Mrs. Helen Campbell of Albany is visiting at Lee S. Blanchard's.

Luther, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Carter of West Topsham, died Sunday morning. The remains were brought here Tuesday, burial being in the family lot in the village cemetery.

Ora Thurston has been sick the past week with a stomach trouble, but is better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Heath are recovering from their recent attack of the grip.

Mrs. Alma Paris of Plainfield arrived in town Thursday for a few days' visit with her father.

A short prayer service was held for James Markham, who died Wednesday afternoon and the remains were taken to Montpelier Thursday morning on the early train, where the funeral was held at 9 o'clock in St. Augustine's church. Fr. Nolan officiated. A large number of relatives and friends attended. The body was brought back to Groton on the 2 o'clock train and buried in the village cemetery.

Genro Thurston, who is working for Dr. R. R. Caldwell, was called to East Barre Friday by the sudden death of his father.

Herbert Brown of Greenfield, Mass., visited at G. H. Pillsbury's and I. N. Hall's Saturday and Sunday.

When the accounts of the town were audited it was found the town had saved $847.00 to apply on their debt.

The patrons of the Groton Telephone company have received a notice that the company has changed hands. Connecticut Valley Telephone company is the name of the new company, with Nelson Bailey of Wells River, president, and J. Ralph Pierce of Fairlee, general manager.

Mrs. Josephine Loomis visited Mrs. L. B. Felt at Montpelier last week.

G. H. Pillsbury has been sick with the grip for the last two weeks.

EAST CONCORD.

(Mrs. J. I. Folsom, Correspondent.)
Sunday night was the coldest of the season, the mercury registering 44 degrees below zero Monday morning.

Elwood Hudson has returned home from Brightlook hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Alden Briggs has finished work at Fitzdale and gone to Groton, where he has a position as board sawyer in the mill there.

Among the business visitors in St. Johnsbury Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Morrill, Mildred Hartshorn, Harold Warren, Alden Briggs and Mrs. Dennis Fisher.

Mrs. H. R. White was a visitor in Orleans Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. William Gray of Colebrook, N. H., was calling on friends here Monday. She was a guest of Mrs. James Hartshorn while in town.

Mrs. Carrie Turner of Barre was called here Monday by the sickness of her sister, Mrs. Willis Emery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morrison of Fitzdale took their daughter, Margorie, to Brightlook hospital Saturday, where she was operated on, having part of her jaw bone removed, the trouble being caused from an ulcerated tooth.

Mildred Hartshorn, the postmistress, has moved the postoffice from White's store to the house of Mrs. Eliza Graham.

Kenneth of Fitzdale has returned home after spending 10 days with her mother, Mrs. Dora Grant.

Mrs. Lenna Perham was in Sawyer's River, Friday. She was accompanied home Saturday by her husband, Will Perham, who was an over lander of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George King.

Mrs. Frank Crawford was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury Tuesday.

Mrs. George Morrill goes today, Wednesday to Brightlook hospital, where she expects to undergo an operation.

James Hartshorn was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury Monday.

Mrs. Willis Emery went to Brightlook hospital Tuesday, where she will undergo quite a serious operation.

Walter Moore of Fitzdale was a week-end guest of Ross Folsom.

Mrs. Agnes Harriman was a visitor of her sister, Mrs. M. Smith, a part of last week. She left Friday for New Jersey, where she will visit among friends for some time.

Ross Folsom, Oscar Fisher and Norman Crawford were lucky hunters Friday, going out in the afternoon and returning with 11 rabbits.

Mrs. Jennie Whitcher of Twin Mountain, N. H., was a guest of her brothers, Hollis and George Morrill, over Sunday. She was accompanied home by Doris and Della Morrill.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for February was held at the City Mission Saturday afternoon. The topic for the meeting was amusements, money, pictures, and home influence.

Mrs. T. P. Farrell led the devotional services and the informal discussion of the topic.

MONROE.

(Mabel Frazer, Correspondent.)
Joseph Pratt and Forrest Emery went Monday to Dixville Notch, where they will do some carpenter work at "The Balsams."

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Graham were called to Arlington, Mass., Saturday by the sudden death of her mother.

Mrs. P. E. Blancher and Mildred spent in Woodsville.

Alvah Dickinson was in Concord Thursday to see Mrs. Dickinson, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gibson of Ryegate and Mrs. Eber Willey and daughter, Margaret, of Barnet, were visitors at Fred Gibson's Thursday.

Ellsworth Blair has moved from the Hall farm to the Eastman place in the northern part of the town.

Hugh Duncan is very sick with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Frazer and two children spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. James Moore at East Barnet.

Alberta Nelson is very sick at this writing at her home with the grip.

Mrs. Kate Kinne, who has been caring for Mrs. Horace Duncan, has returned to her home in Barnet.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eastman were in St. Johnsbury Thursday.

Mrs. S. J. Astle has been quite ill with the grip. Her mother, Mrs. Albert Babcock of St. Johnsbury, has been helping care for her.

Leon Jackson of Lisbon has been spending several days with his uncle, Maurice Carter.

While Dr. J. M. Gibson stepped into William Fowler's store one day last week, his horse started on the run for home in McIndoe. Reginald Hunt, who is a swift runner overtook it in the toll bridge and no damage was done.

Mrs. Oscar Frazer has been visiting her sister, Miss Nettie Lang, in Barnet.

The Ladies' Aid society meets Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. P. E. Blanchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Hosford of Woodsville spent the week-end with their parents here.

Miss Julia Fisher is spending this week in North Haverhill.

The Ladies' Aid society of North Monroe will serve its annual fish dinner and supper at the vestry Friday, Feb. 23.

Miss Belle Hinman of St. Johnsbury spent the week-end at her home here.

Mrs. Moses Weeks of Bath visited Mrs. Fred Gibson Saturday and Sunday.

About